15.4.4. is a former director or executive officer of a financial Co-operative or any other financial Co-operative institution and that the person's actions contributed to the inability of that financial Co-operative or other financial Co-operative institution to pay its debts; or 15.4.5. has taken part in any business practices that, were deceitful, prejudicial, or otherwise improper (whether unlawful or not) or which otherwise brought discredit to that person's methods of conducting business.

15.5. A member who is 2 (two) or more months in arrears on loan payments shall not qualify for nomination.

15.6. It shall be the duty of the nominating committee to assure that all nominees proposed for election are members in good standing who qualify for election in accordance with this constitution.

15.7. After the nominating committee has placed before the members the names of candidates proposed, the Chairperson shall call for nominations from the floor. When nominations are closed, tellers shall be appointed by the Chairperson to distribute and tally the ballots and announce the results.

15.8. All elections shall be determined by plurality vote, of members present, and shall be ballot except where there is only one nominee for the office.

15.9. A declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution has, on a show of hands or by ballot, been carried, or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting, shall be conclusive proof thereof, without evidence as to the number or proportion of votes recorded for or against such resolution.

15.10. If no objection is raised in terms of the provisions of this constitution against the validity of any vote cast at the meeting, whether on a show of hands or by ballot, every vote cast at the meeting that has not been disallowed shall for all purposes be deemed to be valid.

15.11. Nominations shall be in the following order:

15.11.1. Nominations for directors; and

15.11.2. Nominations for the audit committee members.

15.12. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairperson shall have a casting vote.

16. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

16.1. All Directors shall be members of the Co-operative and must include the Managing Director in an ex-officio capacity with no voting rights. None of the Directors, other than managing director may be employees of the Co-operative.

16.2. This Board shall consist of at least 3 (three) members and not more than 15 (fifteen). The number of voting Directors may change to any odd numbers between 3 (three) and 15 (fifteen).

16.3. A majority of all the directors (50 % + 1) shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the Board.

16.4. All elected, appointed or co-opted officers and members of the Board shall sign an acceptance of office and affirm that they will implement the provisions of this constitution as well as abide by a code of conduct as determined by the Board, carry out their duties faithfully and treat all information submitted by members in connection with the Co-operative transactions as confidential.

16.5. Within 10 (ten) days after each Annual General Meeting of the Co-operative, elect as officers from their own number a Chairperson, a Vice Chairperson, a Treasurer, a Secretary and one other. These persons shall form the Governance Committee and shall serve as Officers of the Co-operative.

- 16.6. Each Director will have a specific functional area for which he has to accept responsibility and an alternate member to accept that responsibility in his absence.
- 16.7. Directors shall hold office until the election and qualification of their successors. The regular term of office shall be 3 (three years) with one third of the positions being open for election each year. At the first annual general meeting 3 (three) directors shall be elected to serve for 3 (three) years, 3 (three) Directors shall be elected to serve for 2 (two) years and 3 (three) Directors shall be elected for 1 (one) year. Thereafter elections shall be for 3 (three) years.
- 16.8. Board meetings shall be held each month.
- 16.9. Special meetings may be called by the Chairperson or in his absence by the Vice Chairperson at any time, or upon written request of any 3 (three) Directors.
- 16.10. Any vacancy on the Board, Credit committee, and Audit committee shall be filled by vote of a majority of the Directors then holding office. Directors or Audit committee members so appointed shall hold office only until the next annual general meeting, at which time the unexpired term shall be filled by vote through the election process.
- 16.11. The office of a Director or Credit committee member may be declared vacant by the Board and the vacancy filled as herein provided if a Director or a Credit expected committee member:
- 16.11.1. fails to attend regular meetings of the Board or Credit committee for more than 4 (four) consecutive meetings;

The Board shall call an extraordinary general meeting within 30 (thirty) days thereafter to present a report and recommendation to the members concerning such actions. Such action will be reported to the Supervisor/Supervisory Body.
- 24.8. The Audit committee shall receive and investigate any complaint or appeal by members concerning the operations of the Co-operative.
- 24.9. The Audit committee shall provide a report of each meeting and all actions taken to the next regular meeting of the Board.
- 24.10. The Audit committee shall provide a report of each meeting and all actions taken to the Supervisor of Bullion Beperk
- 24.11. Any actions taken against any Director or committee member by the Audit committee must be reported to the Supervisor.

25. EQUITY AND RESERVES

25.1. The Co-operative's own capital/equity includes share capital, legal reserves and retained earnings to be transformed into voluntary reserves and/or institutional capital. The objective of increasing equity is to provide for working capital and generally for strengthening the financial position of the Co-operative, including the compensation for unexpected losses that may be suffered by the Co-operative in its operations.

25.2. The Co-operative shall maintain the following reserves:

25.2.1. non-distributable reserves (retained earnings) and 25.2.2. indivisible general reserve in terms of the Co-operative Act.

26. DISTRIBUTION OF SURPLUS

26.1. Should any of the statutory reserves reach the minimum regulatory requirement, the excess shall be transferred to other general reserves, established by the Board for the purpose of strengthening the financial position of the Co-operative, until the required level has been reached.

26.2. The surplus of the Co-operative shall, by resolution of members at the annual general meeting, be distributed annually in the following manner and in the following order:

26.2.1. To provide for general reserves;

26.2.2. To special and contingency reserves, if any;

26.2.3. The Board thereafter may recommend interest on share capital to be paid;

26.2.4. An amount may be divided among the members as patronage refund in the proportion to the value of transactions conducted by a member with the Co-operative.

27. ASSET AND LIABILITY MANAGEMENT

27.1. The Co-operative shall ensure that the funds of members are held in safe and secure investments by investing or depositing funds in such instruments as prescribed through the Co-operative Act;

27.2. All monies and valuables kept on the premises of the Co-operative must be kept in a safe;

27.3. All payments and investments must be authorized by the Board, unless the Board has delegated this authority;

27.4. The cash float of the Co-operative will be determined on a weekly basis, based on the expected cash flows during the week under consideration.

28. USE OF FUNDS

28.1. Funds of the Co-operative may be applied to any purpose authorized by members at an annual general meeting that is consistent with the objectives as defined in this constitution.

28.2. No funds will be committed to investments, projects or any other enterprise outside the usual business of the Co-operative.

29. LIEN (SECURITY/COLLATERAL)

The Co-operative shall have a right of retention over the shares and deposits in the Co-operative for any sum due to the Co-operative by a member and for any loan guaranteed by a member and may apply such funds toward repayment of such debts.

30. FINANCIAL YEAR

The financial year of the Co-operative shall begin on the 1 January and end on the 31 of December each year.

31. ACCOUNTS AND RECORDS

31.1. The Managing Director appointed by the Board will be delegated authority to issue receipts for all monies received and to acquire receipts for all monies paid out;

31.2. Cheques drawn, cash withdrawals or transfers made on behalf of the Co-operative shall require 2 (two) signatures from a panel of signatories as approved by the Board. The panel of signatories shall be made up of no more than 5 (five) Directors, the Managing Director and employees.

31.3. The Co-operative's accounts shall be reconciled monthly to bank records.

32. ACCOUNTS AND AUDITS

- 32.1. An independent auditor shall be appointed by the Co-operative at each annual general meeting for the next financial year.
- 32.2. The Co-operative Managing Director shall prepare a monthly statement of the Co-operative accounts which shall be presented to the Board.
- 32.3. All books of account and other records of this Co-operative shall at all times be available to the Directors and Audit committee members of this Co-operative.

33. LOANS

- 33.1. Loans granted to members by the Co-operative shall be made in accordance with the Loan policy and procedure of the Co-operative as formulated by the Board from time to time.
- 33.2. The maximum amount, which may be lent to a member or group of members with joint liability toward a loan to the Co-operative, shall not exceed 10 % (ten percent) of the total assets of the Co-operative, subject to the provisions of the Co-operative's Act and Regulations.
- 33.3. All applications for loans and reports of the Credit committee shall be filed as a permanent record of the Co-operative.
- 33.4. Members of the Board and of any committee member applying for loans shall have their applications approved by either the majority of the other members at a joint meeting of the Board, Credit committee and Supervisory committee or a special committee set up for this purpose from the Board, Credit and Supervisory committees. The borrowing member shall not be in attendance at the meeting when his loan is being considered.
- 33.5. All loans granted to Staff or Directors of the Co-operative and the Supervisory committee must be specifically mentioned in the prescribed manner in the annual report to the members.
- 33.6. The aggregate of all loans extended to staff and the Directors of the Co-operative shall not exceed 10 % (ten percent) of the aggregate of total loans to members.

34. AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

- 34.1. Amendments to this constitution shall be made at the annual or an extraordinary general meeting.

- 34.2. A special resolution will be required to amend the constitution of the Co-operative.
- 34.3. Notice of proposed amendments shall be provided in writing with the notice of the meeting concerned.
- 34.4. Not less than 10 % (ten percent) of members who consider an amendment to the Constitution to be desirable shall submit their proposal to the Secretary of the Board. The proposals shall be placed on the agenda of the next Board meeting and the views of the Board shall be communicated to the members within 42 (forty-two) days of the proposal being received. If the proposal submitted by the members is accepted by the Board, it shall be placed on the agenda of the next general meeting to be passed by special resolution at such meeting.
- 34.5. If the Board rejects the proposal submitted by the members, members may request an extraordinary general meeting to be called specifically for the purpose of consideration of such proposal by all members of the Co-operative.
- 34.6. Proposed amendments to the Constitution shall be circulated by the Board to members at least 21 (twenty-one) days in advance of the annual or extraordinary meeting at which they are to be discussed.
- 34.7. Any amendment to the Constitution shall only come into operation once registered by the Registrar of Co-operatives.

35. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 35.1. The officers, directors, members of the committees and employees of this Co-operative shall hold in strictest confidence all transactions of this Co-operative with its members, except to the extent deemed necessary by the Board in connection with the making of loans and collection thereof.
- 35.2. Individual members' accounts shall be accessible only to Officers of the Co-operative, the Audit committee and the Auditors. Members shall be entitled to inspect their own accounts at any time during the business hours of the Co-operative.

36. GENERAL PROVISIONS

- 36.1. All power, authority of functions of the members of the Board, Committees and Officers of the Co-operative pursuant to the provisions of this constitution shall be exercised in strict conformity with the relevant provisions of this constitution and its adopted policies.

36.2. Notwithstanding any other provisions in these constitutions, any Director, Committee member, Officer or Employee of the Co-operative may be removed from the office by the affirmative vote of two thirds of the members present at a general meeting of which proper notice has been given but only after an opportunity has been given him to be heard.

36.3. This constitution sets the standard procedures and structures required for registration.

36.4. The amendment to the constitution shall only be implemented after it has been approved by the Supervisor and registered by the Registrar of Co-operatives.

37. DISPUTES

37.1. In the case of a dispute between the Co-operative and any of its members or any complaints against any member or Officer which is not related to debt owned by the member to the Co-operative, an application shall be made to the Board through the Secretary for redress, but should the party not be satisfied, an appeal may be made to the Audit committee.

37.2. Failure to settle the dispute in this manner may be referred to a relevant dispute resolution mechanism as established for this purpose.

37.3. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

37.3.1. Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this constitution which cannot be resolved by the parties in accordance with the terms of this constitution or by mediation, will be submitted upon written notice (the Notice of Reference) to that effect, in accordance with the provisions of the Arbitration Foundation of South Africa in force at the date of this constitution;

37.3.2. Where Notice of Reference has been given, arbitration of such dispute shall commence forthwith, unless the parties agree that an attempt first be made by the parties to settle such dispute amicably;

37.3.3. Arbitration shall take place in Johannesburg, or such other place as the parties may agree, and shall be conducted by arbitrator(s) mutually appointed by the parties;

37.3.4. The arbitrator shall be, if the matter in dispute is principally:

37.3.5. A legal matter, a practicing advocate or attorney of Johannesburg of at least 10 (Ten) years' standing;

- 37.3.6. An accounting matter, a practicing-chartered accountant of Johannesburg of at least 10 (Ten) years' standing;
- 37.3.7. Any other matter, an independent person, agreed upon between the parties to the dispute.
- 37.4. Should the parties to the dispute fail to agree whether the dispute is principally legal, accounting or another matter within 7 (Seven) days after arbitration was demanded, the matter shall be deemed to be a legal matter;
- 37.5. Should the parties fail to agree on an arbitrator within 14 (Fourteen) days after the giving of notice, the arbitrator shall be appointed at the request of either party to the dispute by the President for the time being of the Cape Town Bar Council, or its successor in title;
- 37.6. The arbitrator shall have the power to fix all procedural rules for the holding of the arbitration, including discretionary powers to make orders as to any matter which he/she may consider proper in the circumstances of the case with regard to submissions, pleadings, discovery, inspection of documents, examination of witnesses and any other matter relating to the conduct of the arbitration. The arbitrator may receive and act on all such evidence, whether oral or written, strictly admissible or not, as he/she in his/her discretion may deem fit. Unless the arbitrator otherwise expressly directs; the arbitration shall be conducted according to the procedures laid down by the Uniform Rules of the High Court of South Africa as amended and adapted by any special rules or practices applicable in the Cape Town High Court.
- 37.7. The award of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all the parties to the dispute (who hereby agree to carry out the award). The parties hereby exclude all rights of appeal that might otherwise be conferred on them by law;
- 37.8. The arbitrator's award may be made an order of any court of competent jurisdiction including, for the avoidance of doubt, any court which is authorized to make such an order by any treaty or legislation to the reciprocal enforcement of foreign arbitral awards or judgments;
- 37.9. The parties hereby consent to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the Cape Town High Court;
- 37.10. The parties agree to keep the arbitration, including the subject matter of the arbitration and the evidence heard during the arbitration confidential and not disclose the same to anyone except for the purposes of the arbitration proceedings in terms of this clause, any review thereof and obtaining an order;

37.11. The provisions of this clause-

- 37.11.1. constitute an irrevocable consent by the parties to any proceedings in terms hereof and no party shall be entitled to withdraw there from or claim at any such proceedings that it is not bound by such provisions;
- 37.11.2. constitute a separate agreement, severable from the rest of this constitution and shall remain in effect despite determination of or invalidity for any reason of this constitution.

37.12. Nothing contained in this clause 37.3 (Thirty-eight point three) shall prevent any party from seeking interim relief from any court of competent jurisdiction, in circumstances justified by law.

37.13. Under no circumstances shall any party be entitled to cease or suspend the performance of its obligations under this constitution despite the dispute between the parties, or the taking place of arbitration proceedings.

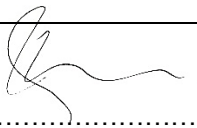

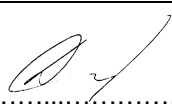

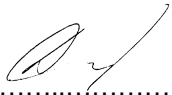

38. DISSOLUTION AND AMALGAMATION

38.1. The Co-operative may be dissolved by special resolution passed by three fourths of the total number of members voting at a special meeting called specifically for that purpose.

38.2. At least 21 (twenty-one) days written notice of such a meeting shall be given to all members. Upon dissolution and in terms of the provisions of the Co-operatives Act, the assets of the Co-operative shall be realized, all liabilities shall be paid, all savings shall be refunded to members and any surplus thereafter be apportioned to members in proportion to the patronage proportion of each member determined for a period of 5 (five) years.

38.3. By special resolution passed by three fourths of the members present and voting at a special meeting called specifically for that purpose, the members may resolve that the Co-operative amalgamate with another Co-operative, provided further that all the members of the amalgamated Co-operative meet the same criteria as a Co-operative as specified in this constitution and as in accordance with the provisions of the Co-operatives Act with regard to amalgamations.
